

GitHub Quick Facts

GitHub is the best place to share code with friends, co-workers, classmates, and complete strangers. Over five million people use GitHub to build amazing things together.

Company

- GitHub was founded in February, 2008
- GitHub HQ is in San Francisco, California
- Founders: Tom Preston-Werner, Chris Wanstrath, and PJ Hyett
- Investors: $100M from Andreessen Horowitz in July 2012
- Employees: 240 (see <https://github.com/about> for a current number)
- Approximately two-thirds of the GitHub team work remotely

GitHub.com

- 5.4 million users
- 11.3 million repositories (projects)
- 20 million unique visitors per month
- Ranked 188th most trafficked website on the internet

GitHub Products

- GitHub.com : public and private hosted collaboration
- GitHub Enterprise : collaborative software development for teams of all sizes
- GitHub Pages : easily create beautiful personal and project web pages
- GitHub for Mac, Windows, and Eclipse
- GitHub Gist : share and collaborate on code snippets
- GitHub Jobs : find the best jobs in software

